

2019

AFRICAN AMERICAN LEADERSHIP WORKSHOP

March 8-9 • Baylor's Truett Seminary • Waco, TX

Giving Your All in Children's Ministry – Rev. Rosalind Spencer

Course Description:

Learning how to give 100% in Children Ministry and still feel complete and full of joy, as a laborer for the Kingdom. Understand the balance between sacrifice and obedience. Learn to receive from God one's affirmation confirmation in ministry, and finally refocusing each participant that as we serve others, God promises to supply our needs here on earth and in the age to come eternal life. Based on the counsel Jesus gives in Luke 18:29-30.

Course Objectives:

1. The students will learn to balance Obedience and Sacrifice.
2. The Student will gain knowledge about burnout.
3. The students will learn to receive their confirmation and affirmation from God.
4. The Student will learn to refocus on God as they serve.
5. The Student will learn how to take hold of the promises God has for them on earth and in heaven.
6. The students will learn how to remain complete in their Joy.

Course Text:

Luke 18:29-30; Matthew 19:16-30, Matthew 11:30; Phil. 2:13.
New King James, The Message Bible, New Living Translation

Web Resources:

http://business.baylor.edu/Phil_vanauken/ChurchBurnout.html
<https://www.barna.com/research/teens-evaluate-the-church-based-ministry-they-received-as-children/>
<https://www.barna.com/burnout-breakdown-barnas-risk-metric-pastors/>
<https://www.barna.com/research/unleashing-the-church-through-lay-leadership/>

Presenter Bio

Rev. Rosalind Spencer has worked in Children and Youth ministry for over 40 years. She has presently worked as Children Pastor for 17 years at Westside Baptist Church in Lewisville, Texas

Contact Information

rspencer@wbcchurch.org