Relationship with Jesus

1. Create a set of instructions detailing how someone without a relationship with Jesus can begin a relationship with Jesus.
2. What specific actions will you need to take in your life to fulfill the instructions?
3. Will these instructions and the actions you take point others to Jesus?

Prayer Life Verses

Matthew 14:23

After he had dismissed them, he went up on a mountainside by himself to pray. Later that night, he was there alone.

Mark 6:46

After leaving them, he went up on a mountainside to pray.

Luke 5:16

But Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed. NIV: New International Version.

Luke 6:12

One of those days Jesus went out to a mountainside to pray, and spent the night praying to God.

Mark 1:35

Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed.

Quotations designated (NIV) are from THE HOLY BIBLE: NEW INTERNATIONAL VERSION®.

True or False

1. We all seek Jesus at some point. We have a hole in our hearts that can only be filled by Him.
2. The encounter with the leper was somewhat of a distraction in Jesus' busy schedule.
3. Jesus' main role was to prepare the disciples for ministry after He was gone.
4. Jesus has compassion for every person and every situation.
5. A touch from God always leads to immediate healing.
6. Our faith plays a significant part of God's ability to heal.
7. It is necessary for the church to validate or confirm God's acts of healing.
8. When God heals in our lives, it is personal and not to be shared with others.

Item 6, For Lesson 5, Discovery Plan—
Step 5, True or False

Compassion

1. What things would we consider unclean in our society?
2. What was the leper's posture in approaching Jesus? Why is that important?
3. What role did the leper's faith play in his healing?
4. What role did Jesus' compassion play in the leper's healing?
5. Is the immediacy of the leper's healing significant? How so? Were there other times when Jesus healed on a different timetable?

Step 8, Compassion

Mark 2 Passage

- 1 A few days later, when Jesus again entered Capernaum, the people heard that he had come home.
- 2 They gathered in such large numbers that there was no room left, not even outside the door, and he preached the word to them.
- 3 Some men came, bringing to him a paralyzed man, carried by four of them.
- 4 Since they could not get him to Jesus because of the crowd, they made an opening in the roof above Jesus by digging through it and then lowered the mat the man was lying on.
- 5 When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralyzed man, “Son, your sins are forgiven.”
- 6 Now some teachers of the law were sitting there, thinking to themselves,
- 7 “Why does this fellow talk like that? He’s blaspheming! Who can forgive sins but God alone?”
- 8 Immediately Jesus knew in his spirit that this was what they were thinking in their hearts, and he said to them, “Why are you thinking these things?
- 9 Which is easier: to say to this paralyzed man, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up, take your mat and walk’?
- 10 But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” So he said to the man,
- 11 “I tell you, get up, take your mat and go home.”
- 12 He got up, took his mat and walked out in full view of them all. This amazed everyone and they praised God, saying, “We have never seen anything like this!”

Questions

1. Why do you think Jesus was so popular?
2. What are some characteristics of good friends, as demonstrated in this passage?
3. To whose faith did Jesus respond?
4. Do you think the paralytic had faith? Why or why not?
5. Why were the scribes concerned about Jesus' words? What did they accuse Him of?
6. What does it mean that Jesus perceived in His spirit?
7. How did Jesus explain His use of words in the healing?
8. What does this passage teach us about Jesus?

Wedding Feast Analogy

1. Why would Jesus use the analogy of a bridegroom to describe a celebration?
2. What does Jesus say about being in the presence of the bridegroom?
3. Does Jesus seem to equate fasting with mourning in the absence of a bridegroom? If so, how?
4. Do you think Jesus is giving a hint in these verses of things to come? If so, how?
5. Does Jesus condemn fasting? Does Jesus bless fasting? Or does He simply say it is unnecessary when you are in the presence of God?

Item 12, For Lesson 8, Discussion Plan—
Step 5, Wedding Feast Analogy

Old and New

1. Jesus was doing His best to bridge the old religious system with the new He was bringing.
2. When we are saved, Jesus patches up our old life.
3. The new that Jesus brings is not compatible with the old.
4. We must hold on to Old Testament religious traditions in order to appreciate what Jesus has done for us.
5. Rituals and religious celebrations are meaningless for today's believers.

Strange State Laws

From USA Today Article 10/29/2018 accessed 6/19/2020

<https://www.usatoday.com/list/news/nation-now/weirdest-laws-every-state/53ad0541-3518-4432-adc4-0fec193d389e/>

Skamania County, Washington, passed a law in 1969 deeming the "slaying of Bigfoot to be a felony and punishable by 5 years in prison."

In Virginia, it's illegal to "hunt or kill any wild bird or wild animal, including any nuisance species" on Sundays. However, it is permissible to kill raccoons.

In Texas, marriages by proxy are perfectly legal. In other words, if you have a legitimate reason for absence - like military service - you can send someone to get married in your place, as long as you have all the right documentation.

North Dakota holds that "no person, firm or corporation shall exterminate pigeons or other harmful wild birds without first having obtained a permit from the Fargo health department."

Until 2015, Minnesota law limited nursing homes and senior centers to just two days of bingo per week.

Louisiana law states that individuals involved in "bear wrestling matches" - defined as "a match or contest between one or more persons and a bear for the purpose of fighting or engaging in a physical altercation" - are guilty of bear wrestling.

At one point in Kansas, it was illegal in the state to top a slice of cherry pie with a scoop of ice cream.

In Gainesville, Georgia it is illegal to eat fried chicken with a fork.

In Delaware, it's illegal for a pawnbroker to "take or receive as a pledge or pawn any artificial limb or wheelchair."

In Goodyear, Arizona it's illegal to spit on a public sidewalk, crosswalk or highway or in a park or public building.

Knowing God's Will

“How can I know I am making the right decision?” If we are in a growing relationship with God in Christ, if we are in fellowship with other believers and are humbly open to wise counsel, and if we earnestly are seeking to be obedient to God, we can depend on God to guide us (Proverbs 3:5-6). If the answer still is not clear, we step out in faith, knowing we can trust the matter to God. Sometimes, God may present us with two alternatives, either of which could be within His purpose for our lives. If we are honest, the challenge for most of us is not trying to discern God's will when it seems unclear. The real challenge is obeying the commands that clearly are God's will.

- John 3:16 (Repent of sin)
- 1 Thessalonians 5:18 (Pray and give thanks)
- 1 Thessalonians 4:3 (Abstain from evil and do good)
- Micah 6:8 (Act justly, love mercy, walk humbly)
- John 15:12-14 (Love each other the way Jesus loves us)
