MISSIONARY HIGHLIGHT

Camp Fusion Texas

Refugee children and youth face a unique set of obstacles. That is why events like Camp Fusion are so vital to this population.

Camp Fusion is a five-day summer camp that welcomes refugee children from grades 6-12. Its mission is to connect students from Texas Baptists Intercultural churches at this crucial time in their faith journey. During this culturally relevant camping experience, they worship, fellowship, and grow intellectually through teaching, physically through recreation and spiritually through God's word.

Last year's camp saw 11 who made first-time professions of faith and 79 who recommitted themselves to Jesus. Eleven cultures were represented in the group of 314 attendees.

Texas Baptists Intercultural Ministries Strategist Mark Heavener described the camp as a place where their unique cultures are able to come together while they hear from God and see their lives impacted.

Our gifts to the Cooperative Program help fund events like Camp Fusion, which help bring people from every tongue, tribe and nation to God.

Let's pray for all of the students who will participate in Camp Fusion this summer. Pray that God would strengthen the faith of these students and draw new believers to Himself.
