

Discussion Guide for Session 7: Priorities

1. Becky suggested her relationship with God and self-care are her top two priorities. Respond to this: do you agree or disagree that those should be your two top priorities, and why?
2. Discuss the concept of life “accounts” as the term is used in your material. Is this a new concept to you? What do you find helpful about it?
3. Discuss the idea of life balance as you think about your life accounts. How do you know if your life accounts are not receiving appropriate attention?
4. What are your greatest challenges when it comes to life balance and addressing your life accounts?
5. To what extent are you satisfied with your life priorities? In what ways do they need to be rearranged?
6. How might you adjust your life or ministry to attend to your priorities better?
7. Hyatt and Harkavy distinguish between being busy and being busy with the right things. Discuss this contrast between busy and busy with the right things in your life and ministry.
8. What do priorities have to do with mission and eulogy?

